

“Finding Old Sikyon”: Methods and Results of two Years of Research
Workshop at the National Museum of Denmark, Prinsens Palæ, Festsalen
May 19, 2017

– Preliminary Programme –

- 9.00-9.15      Welcome by Per Kristian Madsen (National Museum of Denmark, Director General) and Silke MÜth-Frederiksen (National Museum of Denmark, Ancient Cultures of Denmark and the Mediterranean)
- 9.15-9.30      Thomas Heine Nielsen (University of Copenhagen, Saxo Institute): An Introduction to Sikyon’s History
- 9.30-10.30     Konstantinos Kissas (Ephorate of Corinth/University of Trier, Institute of Classical Archaeology): Die Ergebnisse der Notgrabungen der Ephorie in Sikyon entlang der Autobahn Korinth-Patras
- 10.30-11.00    Coffee Break ☕
- 11.00-11.45    Wieke de Neef (University of Groningen, Institute of Archaeology) and Burkart Ullrich (Eastern Atlas, Berlin): Geoarchaeology: Augering and Resistivity Measurements
- 11.45-12.30    Kristina Winther-Jacobsen (Danish Institute at Athens): The Archaeological Survey
- 12.30-14.00    Lunch Break 🍴
- 14.00-14.45    Harald Stümpel (University of Kiel, Institute of Geosciences): The Geophysical Investigations
- 14.45-15.30    Silke MÜth-Frederiksen (National Museum of Denmark, Ancient Cultures of Denmark and the Mediterranean): Geophysical Investigations and Remote Sensing: Archaeological Interpretations
- 15.30-16.00    Coffee Break ☕
- 16.00-16.45    Zoe Spyralanti (Ephorate of Corinth/Danish Institute at Athens): Architecture and Design of Private space in Classical Sikyon
- 16.45-17.30    Giorgos Giannakopoulos (Ephorate of Corinth/Danish Institute at Athens): Classical Pottery from Sikyon, The Fine Wares
- 17.30            Conclusion